

WÄRTSILÄ SUPPLIER GUIDE TO E-INVOICING

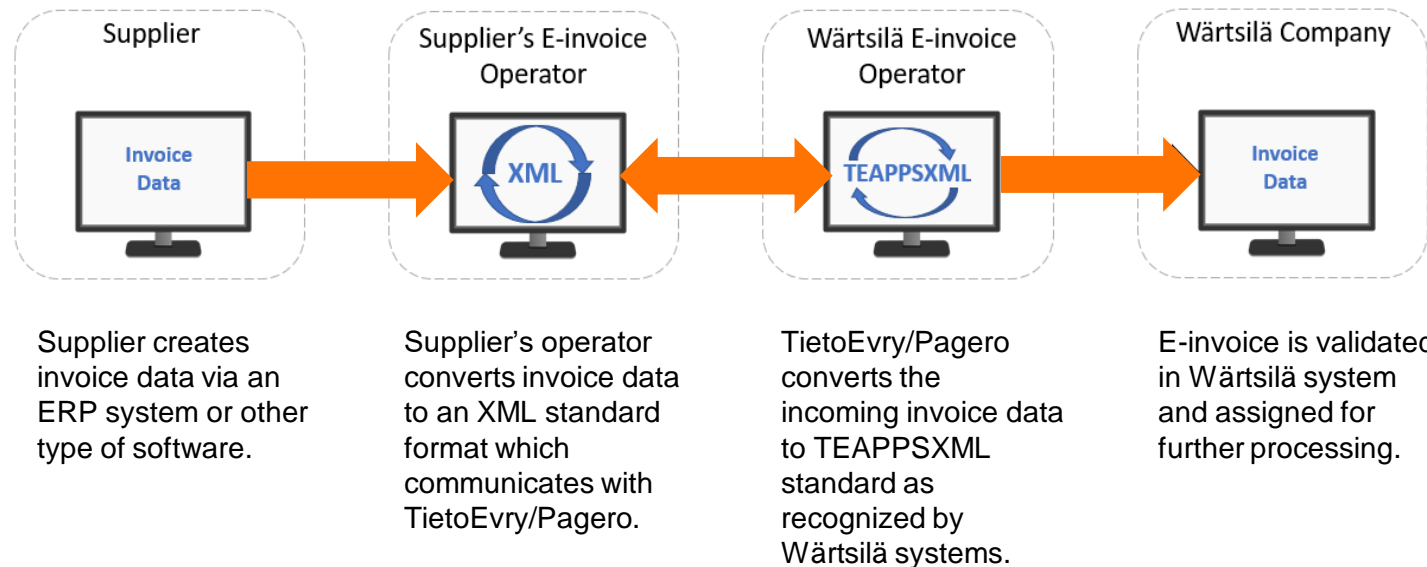

INTRODUCTION

- An e-invoice is created, sent and received electronically
- E-invoicing can lead to cost savings through elimination of printing, mailing, scanning, processing and archiving costs.
- E-invoicing can also enable better data analysis, improved invoice quality and closer customer relations. It may also reduce a company's carbon footprint.
- Wärtsilä is committed to increase the number of e-invoices received in all our global operations. We are encouraging our suppliers to adopt electronic invoicing in transactions with all Wärtsilä Companies.
- For any questions regarding this material or e-invoicing in Wärtsilä, please contact our e-invoicing team at: invoice.e@wartsila.com
